This newsletter will be brief. In the tossup between keeping my employer who pays my salary, puts food on my table, and a roof over my head, and the USA who does not, it is not too difficult to guess who wins. This month saw me variously in Tulsa, Houston, Trinidad, Bermuda, Barbados, Miami, London, Great Yarmouth, and Houston. And back again.

A Poker scheduled for October 24th to be held at Kanakee State Park was cancelled due to real lousy weather as only Chicago can bring.
